CAREER EXPERIENCE

SOFTTEL COMMUNICATIONS | MONTREAL, QUEBEC, CANADA | REMOTE

AI software and services company delivering Microsoft-centered communications and digital transformation solutions.

Channel Director, North America | 2025–Present

SNAPSHOT: Lead North America partner growth across Microsoft-centered AI, CCaaS, UCaaS, Teams migration, and professional services. Own partner recruitment, onboarding, enablement, marketing oversight, pipeline development, and coordination across sales, product, and technology teams. Key relationships with major telco and BPO organizations, including AT&T, NTT, and Verizon.

Refocused the partner function to create a more organized, credible, Microsoft-aligned growth engine by narrowing the company's market focus, rebuilding strategic partner relationships, and putting the operating structure in place to support partner-led growth. Generated $6M+ in new-logo opportunities and $2M in net new revenue within nine months.

- Built a clearer market lane around Microsoft, CCaaS, UCaaS, Teams migration, and AI/Copilot, making the company easier for partners and customers to understand.
- Created the partner infrastructure the company lacked, including onboarding, CRM-based quote management, and a partner portal, improving partner access and operational consistency.
- Strengthened market credibility by rebuilding partner relationships, upgrading marketing materials, and helping launch a more targeted growth strategy.

EMITE | DENVER, CO | REMOTE

Global provider of data analytics, warehousing, and visualization tools for Fortune 500 companies.

Channel Manager, Americas | 2023–2025

SNAPSHOT: Built and expanded channel partnerships across the Americas by recruiting, onboarding, and enabling GSIs, VARs, and OEMs while working across sales, product, and marketing to strengthen partner readiness and accelerate growth. Established an OEM relationship and created a business process operations center.

Accelerated channel revenue and partner-generated opportunity flow, increasing revenue 38.5% in six months and building a $3M to $4M partnership pipeline that included AWS, TTEC, Deloitte, Lumen, and Genesys.

- Lifted brand interest 75% through stronger event visibility and improved tradeshow materials across North America.
- Tripled channel pipeline by strengthening partner training, refreshing marketing assets, and introducing a more consistent QBR cadence.

TECHSEE | TEL AVIV, ISRAEL | REMOTE

Startup provider of automated and augmented reality solutions for remote customer service.

Global Director of Alliances | 2022–2023

SNAPSHOT: Helped expand the company's partner ecosystem across North America, the Middle East, Central America, Europe, and the UK while working closely with senior leadership to recalibrate go-to-market strategy and strengthen alliance execution.

Contributed to 40% revenue growth by expanding strategic partnerships, sharpening market focus, and rebuilding the business plan behind the company's alliance motion. Partnerships included Oracle, Telus International, and AWS.

- Realigned alliance development by category and vertical, creating a more disciplined approach to partnership growth.
- Rebuilt the business plan and channel structure to support a stronger launch and marketing execution.
